
Rangeela is a Bollywood movie released in 1995, starring Govinda, Karisma Kapoor, Shakti Kapoor and Divya Dutta. The film was directed by Sooraj R. Barjatya. It was well received by audience and became the second highest grossing movie of 1995 after Kuch Kuch Hota Hai. Beti (Karisma Kapoor) has problems with her strict mum (Diya Mirza), who wants her to be married off to an older man. Beti loves Govinda but he's stuck with his sick friend Tina (Divya Dutta). One of Tina's friends (Kiran Kumar) is a big fan of TV's hero Rangeela. Tina's mother calls her to India but on the way she meets a man of Subhash Nagar, the same area where the hero of TV series Rangeela stays. Tarang (Govinda), a police officer, helps Beti get home from Delhi. He falls in love with her and tries to make her normal again.

In this movie Govinda has done his funny dances with all the kids in his school and he tried to get relationship with Karisma ,then he tried to get relationship with Divya Dutta . This film grossed about Rs.30 crores in 1995 and became the second highest grossing movie of the year.

The music for this movie was given by Nadeem-Shravan and lyrics were penned by Sameer. The music was well received. Especially the songs "Rangeela Re", "Jiya Jale" and "Sach Hai Rangeela" were a hit. "Rangeela" became a trend-setter for Govinda's style, dancing and romance signature style in his films since then.
